

INTERVIEW / PROJECT ON KESHAWN IDRIS

Iyana Garrett

WHO IS KESHAWN IDRIS?

Keshawn Idris is my 22 year old cousin. Keshawn just completed his 5th year of college at Baldwin Wallace University in Columbus, Ohio.

WHAT DID HE DO?

While Keshawn was in college he came back for summers. Over the summers he was basically like a young teacher. Keshawn tutored kids at a southside summer program. I remember one time I saw a paper in his room that said “ I will not throw anything” for the whole page and I thought it was his but it was his students.

HIS INFLUENCES

Keshawn participated in a non-profit program called MetroSquash and this is what he said about that program before he went to college "When I joined the team in 2006 I had no idea what squash even was. My mom decided that we were going to do this program and we have both stuck with it ever since.

METROsquash has done so much for me and my family over the last 7 years- traveling to London on a trip, having a safe place to go after school and also having a mentor to guide me. I know that I am where I am today because of this program. It is not like any other program, and I can now say that I am GOING to college!" ~METROsquash student since 2006. MetroSquash led him to achieve many great things.

ACTIVE PART OF CAREER

Keshawn's career is most active now because he had been applying for different jobs and he's trying to find what he wants to do. Also he is currently working with a company now that gives him frequent projects.

WHY DOES HE DO WHAT HE DOES?

Keshawn does what he does such as getting jobs, going to college, and volunteering to make his family proud. Also Keshawn wants to become an independent young man.

HOW DID HE INFLUENCE ME?

Keshawn influences me to follow my dreams. Keshawn never thought he would be going to college but he did. Keshwan shows me that anybody can do anything.
